RE: Little River A&P Show 2022, cancellation.

The Banks Peninsula A&P Show Committee regret to inform you that our 110th Annual Show, scheduled for 22 January 2022 has been cancelled.

This has been a difficult decision to make, but in view of the uncertainty and challenges that COVID 19 currently brings, the Committee have decided not to proceed.

We would like to thank all who have contributed towards the planning of this event, and we look forward to providing a safe and enjoyable show in January 2023.
